TRANSACTION DISPUTE PROCESS

If you suspect fraud or error on your card:

1. Contact the number on the back of your card immediately.
2. If this is an unrecognized transaction ask the customer service representative to have your card reported as lost/stolen. If your card is not reported as lost/stolen you may receive a letter instructing you to have your card reported as Lost/Stolen before moving forward with your dispute.
3. Complete the Transaction Dispute Form and fax or mail to Cardholder Services (contact information on bottom of page 1). It must be received within 90 days of the original transaction date.
4. Your account will receive a provisional credit within 10 business days as long as the Transaction Dispute Form is valid and received within 90 days of the original transaction settlement date.
5. If Cardholder Services requests that you provide additional dispute documentation, it must be received within 20 calendar days from the date listed on the letter sent to you in order to avoid having the provisional credit reversed.
  - o Submission of a police report should not be considered a substitute for responding to follow up affidavits received requesting signatures or other dispute documentation.
6. If the Merchant for the transaction provides adequate documentation to deny your claim (within 30 calendar days of the provisional credit), then the provisional credit will be reversed and the dispute will be denied.
7. The typical time frame for a disputed transaction to be considered complete with permanent credit on your account is within 60 calendar days from the date the completed Transaction Dispute Form is received.

Important Note: The transaction dispute process is not intended to dispute why a transaction was declined or submission of requests for additional documentation. Please contact the number on the back of your card if you have any questions.
